About One-Fourth Publishers' Prices!

This is the culmination of well-known panic conditions in the Subscription Book Trade. Some big publishing failures are known to the public, but only bankers and others on the inside understand the extensive financial difficulties which have caused this enormous Forced Sale. At the inflated Subscription Prices $6,000,000 worth of Fine de Luxe Editions were recently thrown upon the market by leading Subscription Publishers, Printers and Binders, who were compelled to unload at any price to raise money. A Subscription Publishers Clearing House was formed to distribute the enormous stocks among leading houses in large cities. We bought heavily, securing the entire allotment for this City, and therefore we offer these Superb Editions exclusively here.

The sale comprises de luxe publications of many subscription houses, including Bigelow, Smith & Co., The Davos Press, Gebbie & Co., The Nottingham Society and The Chesterfield Society. Under the two last mentioned imprints were re-issued from the same plates the fine de luxe sets of standard authors formerly published and extensively sold through agents by John D. Morris & Co., Philadelphia. All the best sets advertised widely in magazines and sold by agents at high prices you'll find right here at astonishing bargain prices. You can now get three or four magnificent sets for the subscription price of one. Select the favorite authors you want and enjoy the possession of a fine private library, a creditable ornament in your home and a good investment in every way.

Oscar Wilde!

A great Poet, Playwright, Novelist and Essayist. Literature presents few more remarkable careers than that of Oscar Wilde. While yet a student at Oxford his poems were compared with those of Tennyson. In 1882, when only twenty-six years old, his lecture tour of America netted him over $30,000. He was undoubtedly the greatest playwright of his time.

This only complete authorized edition de luxe is now for the first time made accessible for American readers by special arrangement with Wilde's literary executor Mr. Robert Ross, and with the London publishers, Methuen & Co. The plates of this edition which were imported from England are the same as those of the rare English edition issued by Methuen & Co., of which only a few sets found their we's to America to be quickly bought up by bibliophiles at 175 and upward per set.

Space here permits mention of only a few more important titles, such as The Duchess of Padua (first complete edition), intentions and other Essays complete. Poems, Ravenna, The Sphinx, Ballad of Reading Gool, the Harlots House, and all poems complete, including many never before published, Lady Windermere's Fan, A Woman of no Importance, Florentine Tragedies, Vera, The Nihilists, Salome, and all other plays complete: The Picture of Dorian Grey, A House of Pomegranates, The Happy Prince, Lord Arthur Saville a Crime, and all other plays complete Reviews and Miscellanies newly collected and published for the first time. It volumes.

The type of these English plates is extra large and handsome, printed on superfine white wove paper with the Aldus de luxe watermark. The Eugen and the programme and half tone are from original drawings. Cloth binding, vellum labels, gold tops, uncut edges.
